NSE-ASI dips by 1.47 per cent on report of CBN Governors' suspension

The Exchange's All Share Index reverted from winning ways by falling 1.47 per cent to close 38,318.19 as against yesterday's 39,397.09. Several analyst believe this market dip is hinged on the Federal Government's suspension of the CBN Governor, Mallam Sansi Lamido who has been recently critical about the administration's management of the Nation's crude oil revenues. The Exchange's market capitalization followed suite, closing by an uninspiring N12.468 Trillion at the end of trading today. The value of transactions stood at N4.85 billion after trading recorded in 4,539 deals. While volume of transactions stood at 483 million after the day's transactions.
