NSE-ASI dips further to end a week of uncertainty

The Exchange's All Share Index continued to trend southward today as it closed 38,295.74; a 1.34 per cent decline from yesterday's 38,816.19. It is believed that the continued decline which began yesterday is still hinged on the market's reaction to the suspension of the CBN Governor, Mallam Lamido Sanusi by the Federal Government. The Exchange's market capitalization followed suite, closing by an uninspiring N12.31 Trillion at the end of trading today. The value of transactions stood at N3.51 billion after trading recorded in 5,107 deals. While volume of transactions stood at 520 million after the day's transactions.
